

On Sinai's Height

1. On Si - nai's height with wind and fire, The great I
 2. A day of rest, a time for praise: This one day
 3. All life is sa - cred; God's own breath Blown in our
 4. We should not take a thing, a name; And in this
 5. That we a god - ly life might live, God did these

1. AM with might and power Did give the Law that we might
 2. held, for all our days, To ga - ther 'round the Word, the
 3. bo - dies 'til our death. Let death be God's call of our
 4. waste our neigh - bor's fame. For steal - ing hon - ors not God's
 5. ten com - mand - ments give. And through Christ's cross, there shines a

1. be A peo - ple who life's path might see. A face - less
 2. Bread; That we and all might there be fed. A fam - 'ly
 3. soul Not some - thing torn from life's rich whole. God gave to
 4. will, And slan - der's words do not speak well. In all our
 5. way To grace for - give - ness, and God's day. So now to

1. God, no i - mage shown; A name - less God, yet not un -
 2. ga - thered in the home, A fa - ther, mo - ther here are
 3. us, then give we too. But gifts of love and sex are
 4. life we have been giv'n The stuff of life, the way to
 5. God Cre - a - tor, Word And Ho - ly Spi - rit, e'er a -

1. known. Seen in our praise, heard in the Word,
 2. known And hon - ored thus for all their days:
 3. due To those in whom our love is known.
 4. heav'n. Crave not life's things, here shared by all;
 5. dored, Praise, laud and hon - or ev - er be

1. The breath of all, cre - a - tion's Lord.
 2. Ex - am - ples of God's time - less grace.
 3. In our em - brace, God's own love shown.
 4. Lest love of things be thus your fall.
 5. For now and through e - ter - ni - ty.

Wittenberg New
 Text: Michael T. Hiller, copyright © 2000
 Tune: Jan O. Bender